

Pair Of Porcelain Potiches In The Chinese Style - Famille Rose - Manufacture Samson

650 EUR

Signature : Manufacture Samson

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A pair of large porcelain pots with lids, richly decorated in pink and gold polychrome. gold decoration. Our bowl bears a signature in Chinese characters in iron on the underside. The decoration is typical of the taste of China (famille rose) and the Compagnie des Indes in the 18th century. 18th century. This is an excellent copy from the Manufacture Samson, dating from the 19th or early 20th century. The "Manufacture de Porcelaines, faïences et terres cuites" of the Samson family (4 generations) is the finest example, in the field of fire arts, of the example of the interest shown in the 19th century and the first half of the 20th century, and for all exotic styles, from Spain to Saxony to China. With a rich, varied and top-quality output, the Samsons were

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000

imitation geniuses and the best reproducers of ancient in the field of ceramic art. The factory was awarded numerous medals at the world's fairs in the second half of the the second half of the 19th century, giving it an international reputation international renown, particularly among museums. If the factory was seen as an excellent factory of perfect copies, the perfection of its the perfection of its products and the reputation it has acquired today a production sought after by connoisseurs, an equivalent of Sormani in the world of ceramics. Beautifully proportioned piece with a strong decorative effect every 18th century. Excellent condition Height : 35cm