

Equestrian Armor Fittings - 16th Century

580 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 7,9 cm

Width : 4,1 cm

Description

Iron plates made using the sand casting technique and then cycled on a gilded background. They are most likely ornamental elements mounted on leather parts of a "bard", a defensive iron horse armor. They feature a vegetal decoration composed of foliage and a vase of flowers. For comparison, you can find an illustrated detail of a breastplate with foliage decoration, dated to the second half of the 16th century, preserved in the collections of the Musée de l'Armée. Very good overall condition, with no defects to report. Dimensions: Length: 7.9 cm Width: 4.1 cm Thickness: 0.15 cm France, circa 1600.
