Description

Beautiful Belle Epoque-style pendant medal in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle head hallmark) depicting the Virgin Mary. Mandorla-shaped, it is openwork in the manner of medals featuring stained glass windows. The Virgin Mary is represented here with her symbolic attributes: the veil, halo, and fleur-de-lis, which are not only associated with her as symbols of purity and spiritual royalty, but also inscribe this medal in a classic and profoundly French iconography. Signed by Guilbert, this piece is indeed a testament to 20th-century French craftsmanship from a medal workshop specializing in religious iconography, where accuracy of line takes precedence over ornament. The gold and chasing offer a beautiful patina that highlights all the details of this finely
