Description

A sumptuous sterling silver Georgian (George III) lidded beer mug or tankard of the highest quality, made by Thomas Wallis I, hallmarked in London in 1763. The domed, hinged lid has a scroll-shaped handle and an S-shaped handle ending in a heart. This is an excellent example in very good condition. The hallmarks are very legible: London guarantee hallmark, letter date for 1767, Thomas Wallis I master goldsmith hallmark. This tankard holds 1.5 pints, plus or 0.85 liters. It weighs 825 grams.
