Description

The charm of Italian history and expert craftsmanship enters your home. We present a great opportunity among my proposals: a splendid and important triptych of Deruta ceramics, dated Italy 1930. This set, crafted in fine earthenware (terraglia), is entirely hand-worked and hand-decorated. Its aesthetic is a tribute to classical grandeur, featuring a masterful use of Pompeian red and pitch black colors. The surfaces are embellished with different ancient figures on each side, evoking timeless myths and stories, making every piece unique and rich in narrative. The triptych consists of two slender vases and a central bowl, all featuring elegant loop handles that provide a harmonious and monumental silhouette. These are not merely objects, but authentic fragments of a centuries-old
