Description

The timeless charm of the Lagoon enters your space with this great opportunity: a splendid and important small Venetian cabinet, dating back to the early 20th century. This piece embodies the graceful elegance and chromatic refinement typical of the Venetian woodworking tradition, perfect for those seeking a touch of historical nobility in a contemporary home. Crafted in wood and entirely hand-painted, the cabinet stands out for its delicate floral decorations interwoven on a lacquered surface, embellished with elegant gold borders that define its shape with extreme grace. The structure, as functional as it is aesthetic, features a small drawer and a central door, offering a discreet yet visually striking storage solution. With generous dimensions but a shallow depth (h. 83 cm, width 107 cm, depth 32 cm), it is perfectly suited as an entryway or hallway piece.

The item is in good overall condition and, most importantly, remains in its original patina.

Although it requires a slight conservative restoration to return to its full splendor, it retains the authentic character and soul of early 20th-century Italian craftsmanship.
