Description

Elegant pair of fine porcelain vases from the Franklin Porcelain factory, entitled "The Meadowland Bird Vase", based on a design by Basil Ede. Each vase is delicately decorated with naturalistic scenes depicting birds in their environment, surrounded by flowering branches and vegetation, executed with great finesse of detail and soft colors. The baluster form is emphasized by a slightly flared neck and gilded fillet edging. The vases rest on their turned wooden bases, adding an extra touch of elegance. Limited edition in fine porcelain, dated 1980. Very fine decorative quality, ideal for a refined interior or a collection. Condition: very good
Manufacture: Franklin Porcelain
