Description

Elegant Louis XVI-style bench seat in carved wood, resting on tapered, fluted legs, joined by a finely-decorated H-shaped brace. The structure features a classic decoration of rosettes, fluting and carved friezes, typical of the Neoclassical style. The seat has been completely reupholstered with a new fabric featuring elegant patterns in soft tones, bringing freshness and refinement to the ensemble. Beautiful patina of the wood and very good quality workmanship. Perfect at the end of a bed, in an entrance hall or living room. Condition: very good, new fabric Era: 19th century Material: carved wood Dimensions: Height 53 cm × Width 99 cm × Depth 34 cm
