Description

Philippe STARCK (Born 1949) This dining table, model Dole Melipone, is a Philippe Starck creation, designed in 1981 for the Italian publisher Driade. It is fully in keeping with the formal design vocabulary of the 1980s, characterized by structural rigor and refined aesthetics. The structure, made of black lacquered metal, is presented in very good condition, testifying to measured and respectful use over time. The attribution of this piece is based on a concordant bundle of documentary sources, including period catalogs, design archives as well as various specialized publications. As a vintage object, this table has no notable defects; it may, however, reveal slight traces of use, inherent to its age, without these altering either its formal legibility or its overall
