

Pair Of Rococo Candlesticks After Meissonnier

1 450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Pair of rocaille candlesticks in chased and gilded bronze. The circular base, with its movement-like shape, echoes the canons of the rocaille style with its curves and counter-curves, foliage and lines wrapping around the central shaft. Characteristic of the rocaille style flirting with rococo, these candlesticks are inspired by the designs of Juste-Aurèle Meissonnier (1695-1750), a French draughtsman, silversmith and ornamentalist considered by his contemporaries to be one of the leaders of the rocaille. He succeeded Jean II Bérain as architect-draughtsman to the King's Chamber and Cabinet. French 19th-century work. Good condition. Height: 22.5 cm. Diameter: 13 cm.
