Description

Clock representing a marine allegory. French work. Circa 1830. Dimensions: Height 57 cm, Width 38 cm, Depth 15 cm. Elegant double patina gilt bronze clock representing a graceful allegory of the Sea. The goddess, crowned with flowers and in a dreamy pose, sits on a rock, leaning on an anchor symbolizing stability and maritime safety. At her side, a cornucopia overflows with fruit and flowers, evoking fertility and abundance. The whole rests on a finely chased bronze base, decorated with a trident similar to Ulysses', topped by a cup filled with flowers, the whole crowned with a floral garland. The dial, adorned with a delicate floral garland, completes this harmonious and refined ensemble.
