Description

Early 20th-century silver reliquary containing a First-Class relic of: Saint Sebastian One of the most venerated early Christian martyrs and a powerful symbol of faith, endurance, and protection. The sacred fragment is carefully displayed beneath glass and arranged according to traditional ecclesiastical practice, reflecting both devotional reverence and refined craftsmanship. At the back of the reliquary, we find an episcopal wax seal holding the threads together and guaranteeing the authenticity of the holy relic. The seal corresponds precisely with the accompanying documentation, confirming its official ecclesiastical certification. The reliquary is accompanied by its original Certificate of Authenticity (COA), issued and signed by His Eminence the Cardinal Basilio Pompilj, verifying
