Description

A piece of history for your contemporary design
Are you looking for a piece that combines character, history, and functionality? This stunning free-standing industrial workbench from the 1950s is a premier opportunity in our collection. Crafted entirely from solid pine wood, this piece preserves the authentic patina of time, reflecting decades of craftsmanship and workshop history. The structure is designed for maximum versatility: 8 central drawers, highly spacious and perfect for keeping everything organized. Open side shelving, ideal for displaying books, accessories, or equipment, making it a functional 360-degree decor piece. With its impressive dimensions (250x90x90), this workbench is more than just furniture--it is a true centerpiece. Whether placed in a modern loft as a kitchen
