PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Art Deco Glazed Earthenware Smoker's Set - Card Game Décor - Circa 1930-1950

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 21 cm

Width : 21 cm

Height : 21 cm

Description

Rare and original glazed earthenware smoker's set, hexagonal shape, resting on its matching tray.This model features a particularly decorative design inspired by the world of gambling, with card symbols (hearts, clubs, spades, diamonds) in slight relief and enhanced with colored enamels. The lid is topped with stylized dice in the round, reinforcing the playful, decorative character of the set.The enamel features a beautiful shaded glaze in shades of blue-green and purplish manganese, typical of late Art Deco and mid-20th-century production. The compartmentalized interior is designed to accommodate cigarettes or smoking accessories.The set includes:a main body with lida notched tray serving as a cigarette restFrench or European work, in the spirit of Vallauris

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème

antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

productions or independent workshops of the 1930s-1950s.Dimensions:Height: 21 cmMaximum length: 21 cmMaximum width: 21 cmCondition:Overall good condition, beautiful original appearance.To note: slight traces of use and small firing irregularities inherent to manufacture.Note:Decorative and functional object, typical of Art Deco tableware and smoking room, as aesthetic as it is singular.We deliver and ship everywhere in the world, please contact us for a free quotation.