

Carved And Lacquered Console, Late Lois XV Period

1 300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 97

Height : 79

Depth : 49

Description

A charming console table in white lacquered wood, the belt decorated with a ribbon bow and openwork geometric motifs, holding garlands of foliage with hearts, resting on two scrolled legs adorned with volutes, rocaille cartouches, and acanthus leaves, joined by a stretcher decorated with foliage and supporting a fire pot in the antique style (minor damage and restoration). The wooden top is painted to imitate veined brown marble (from a later period). Transitional period between Louis XV and Louis XVI. Good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002