Description

Oil on canvas. Signed lower right. The back features a label from the 1928 Venice Exhibition.

Mountain view of the Val Vogna, a small, wild side valley of the Valsesia. Trained at the Brera

Academy under Tallone, Milanese artist

Lodovico Zambelletti successfully devoted himself to landscape subjects, for which he expressed a particular sensitivity, although he also painted genre and environmental figures and was an important portraitist. The painting has slight paint loss; it requires restoration.

Framed. The item is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are unclear from the photos, the description will apply.
