Description

This handcrafted rug from Nepal is distinguished by its contemporary yet poetic aesthetic. Its design evokes a stylized natural landscape : a sinuous central form, resembling a river or a mineral vein, runs the length of the composition. This organic line, bordered by warm orange hues, creates a harmonious separation between two large expanses of blue. On one side, a lighter, soft, and soothing blue; on the other, a deep, almost nocturnal blue, providing contrast and depth. At the heart of the central band, abstract and colorful motifs, rounded dots, and undulating lines infuse movement and vitality, like living elements circulating in this natural flow. Handcrafted using traditional Nepalese techniques, this rug combines rich textures with subtle hues. It integrates seamlessly into both modern interiors
