French Candy Box From The Napoleonic Era

165 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

French candy box from the Napoleonic era. Made of papier-mâché, it features a printed drawing of a soldier cooking a pig on the lid, with the inscription 'Après le dîner de l'État Major' underneath. Measuring approximately 9 cm wide and showing slight traces of wear, this is a fine piece.

Dealer

Waterloo Militaria
Militaria
Mobile : 07856642986

Church
Stapleford Abbotts RM41ES