Description

Orthodox icon depicting the Virgin and Child (Mother of God) in an elaborate composition of narrative and protective type, typical of the Russian tradition. The Virgin is depicted full-length, crowned, carrying the Infant Jesus on her left arm, which is quite rare (often in bust form). She holds a scepter or staff, emphasizing her role as heavenly Queen and intercessor. The Blessed Child, symbol of salvation and divine Law. The whole is structured around a gilded leaf background, representing divine light and celestial space. The scene is enriched by numerous secondary figures (faithful, saints or scenes of supplication), as well as angels in the upper part.
