

Châteauneuf-du-pape, A Rare And Authentic Grape-picker's Hood In Painted Sheet Metal

1 250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted metal

Width : 59 cm

Height : 61 cm

Depth : 41 cm

Description

A rare and authentic grape-picker's hood in painted sheet metal, with advertising decoration for the Châteauneuf-du-Pape appellation, dating from the first half of the 20th century. A truncated-conical flared shape, this hood features beautiful original polychromy on a deep blue background, adorned with the inscription "CHÂTEAUNEUF DU-PAPE" in capital letters, as well as the famous pontifical coat of arms with crossed keys surmounting the tiara. This emblematic decoration is a direct reference to the appellation's papal history, making it a particularly decorative and evocative object. This is a genuine working object that has been used, as evidenced by the traces of use, interior oxidation and exterior wear that give it a beautiful authentic patina. The riveted sheet metal structure is typical

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

of such early 20th century agricultural equipment. Presence of side attachments allowing back carrying (shoulder straps missing), reinforcing its character as a craft object. This type of piece, at the crossroads of agricultural tools and wine advertising, is today highly sought-after for decoration, particularly in worlds linked to wine, cellars or restaurants. Dimensions: Height: 61 cm Maximum length: 59 cm Depth: 41 cm Condition: Used condition with traces of interior oxidation and paint wear. Good overall patina. Structurally sound. Era: First half of the 20th century Material: Painted sheet metal An authentic object with a strong decorative presence, ideal for a cellar, a bistro or a collection of wine objects. In a flared truncated cone shape, this hood features beautiful original polychromy on a deep blue background, adorned with an inscription "CHÂTEAUNEUF DU-PAPE" in capital letters, as well as the famous pontifical coat of arms with crossed keys surmounting the tiara. This emblematic decoration refers directly to the appellation's papal history, making it a particularly decorative and evocative object. This is a genuine object of work that has been used, as evidenced by the traces of use, internal oxidation and external wear that give it a beautiful authentic patina. The riveted sheet metal structure is typical of early 20th century agricultural equipment. Presence of side attachments allowing back carrying (shoulder straps missing), reinforcing its character as a craft object. This type of piece, at the crossroads of agricultural tools and wine advertising, is today highly sought-after for decoration, particularly in wine-related universes, cellars or restaurants. Dimensions: Height: 61 cm Maximum length: 59 cm Depth: 41 cm Condition: Used condition with traces of interior oxidation and paint wear. Good overall patina. Structurally sound. Era: First half of the 20th century Material: Painted sheet metal Authentic object with a strong decorative presence, ideal for a cellar, bistro or collection of wine objects. We deliver, and ship worldwide, please contact us for an accurate quote.