Description

Teak "Ella" model armchair by Arne Vodder, Denmark, 1960sElegant Scandinavian armchair model "Ella", designed by Arne Vodder, a major figure of 20th-century Danish design.Made from solid teak, this armchair is distinguished by the exceptional quality of its joinery and its characteristic organic lines. The structure features carved uprights and finely curved armrests, offering both solidity and visual lightness.The seat and backrest, upholstered in light-colored upholstery, create a harmonious contrast with the warmth of the teak. The inclination of the backrest and the depth of the seat ensure optimum comfort, typical of Danish furniture from the 1950s-1960s. The "Ella" model is the perfect complement to the "Ella" chair.The "Ella" model perfectly illustrates Vodder's approach: a subtle
