Description

Louis XVI period solid walnut semainier - XVIIIe siècle
Elegant Louis XVI period solid walnut semainier, French work from the late XVIIIe century. This piece of furniture opens with seven drawers on the front, each adorned with bronze drop handles and escutcheon escutcheons. The front jambs are decorated with fluted columns characteristic of the Louis XVI style, and rest on toupie-shaped turned legs. This piece of furniture opens with seven drawers on the front, each adorned with bronze drop handles and escutcheon keyholes. The front features a beautiful walnut grain with a warm, luminous patina. The drawers are assembled with dovetails, testifying to quality antique workmanship. Elegantly proportioned, shallow cabinet, easy to place in an interior.
