Description

Elegant inlaid support cabinet in precious wood (Boulle style), Napoleon III period - 19th century
Elegant inlaid support cabinet in precious wood, richly decorated with a flowering vase in scroll and arabesque frames. The front features a door adorned with a superb inlaid panel with central decoration of a vase on an entablature, surrounded by fine floral and foliate compositions, in a very meticulous work typical of the Napoleon III taste. The uprights are embellished with turned and fluted columns, bringing relief and elegance to the ensemble. The cabinet opens through a door revealing an interior composed of shelves, offering functional storage. It rests on small turned feet. Marble top (griotte), framed by a brass gallery. Dimensions: Height: 105 cm Width: 77 cm Depth: 37
