Description

This panoramic, idyllic oil-on-canvas landscape, painted by the artist J. Lorenz in 1905, represents a magnificent example of the Scandinavian academic school. The canvas transports us to the majestic atmosphere of northern nature, to ancient rocky shores where the pearly shades of the evening sky are reflected in the calm water. In the foreground, among tall, slender pines whose tops are gently touched by the rays of the sunset, a peasant woman walks along a winding forest road. Slightly further to the right, a fishing boat with two fishermen is visible through the haze. The masterful command of chiaroscuro and the meticulous rendering of texture and fine details serve to emphasise the exceptional skill of the artist. This work will make an exquisite addition to any interior, bringing an atmosphere of
