Description

A piece of history in your home
Choosing this wardrobe means bringing an authentic fragment of the 18th century into your home, as it is an object that radiates the charm of ancient Alpine dwellings. Certainly, the element that immediately captures the eye is the presence of original period paintings, which decorate the doors with floral motifs and symbolism typical of the Tyrolean tradition. Furthermore, the solid wood structure bears witness to a craftsmanship that is now rare to find on the antique market.
Technical details and conservation
Regarding its current state, the piece is in good general condition, proudly maintaining its first patina which confirms its authenticity and the passage of centuries. However, it is important to emphasize that the piece requires a
