Description

Beautiful and imposing portrait of a man from the "30s" in his original crepidoré melèse mother-of-pearl. He is proudly seated in his living room next to a bust of Diana. Wearing luminous glasses, he proudly poses with his boots, riding breeches and brown wool jacket, looking at you and proudly calling out to you with his arm resting on the arm of his armchair. There's no doubting his Aristocratic bearing, and this remarkable large canvas on stretcher has everything to seduce; decorative and in good condition, this intimate portrait has all the qualities of a chosen and inspired decoration, the touch is precise and meticulous and the colors give a hushed atmosphere, an exceptional piece with great decorative power.
