Description

If you are looking for a piece that combines the nobility of metal with the craftsmanship of the early 20th century, this is an unmissable opportunity among my collection. We present a refined wrought iron plant stand, an authentic masterpiece of Art Nouveau aesthetic.The structure features elegant floral decorations with three scrolls, supporting the superb upper component with grace and sturdiness. With a height of 72 cm and a diameter of 50 cm, the stand has perfect proportions to furnish a grand entrance or a stately living room with character.The true highlight is the large hammered brass bowl, originating from Florence (1910). This piece (h. 10 cm, diam. 45 cm) showcases embossed workmanship of rare beauty, complemented by side rings that
