Description

This antique floral still life painting is a refined 19th-century oil on canvas, of French origin.

The composition depicts a rich bouquet of flowers harmoniously arranged near a stream: yellow roses, Lilac, and wildflowers, rendered with remarkable chromatic sensitivity and close attention to botanical detail.

The warm, deep tones of the dark background enhance the brilliance of the petals, creating an elegant chiaroscuro effect typical of the French academic tradition. The soft and controlled brushwork, with a realistic rendering, and the slightly asymmetrical arrangement lend naturalness and movement to the scene.
