Description

Elegant head representing Hermes, inspired by the famous antique model known as Hermes Ludovisi. This reproduction accurately reproduces the canons of Greek sculpture: a face of harmonious proportions, with a calm, slightly downcast gaze, and a finely drawn mouth.The hair, composed of tight, abundant curls, is treated with a lively relief that subtly captures the light. The soft, balanced facial modeling highlights the volumes of the forehead, cheekbones and chin.Made in terracotta covered with a white patina, this head evokes the studio casts and study models used in art education. The surface retains a matte, slightly shaded appearance that emphasizes the reproduction work.A timeless decorative piece, both classic and understated, ideal for an elegant interior, office or
