Description

Elegant Directoire-style coffee table, in gilded brass and silver-plated metal uprights, resting on four tapered legs with pointed terminations. The transparent glass top is part of a sober, refined structure, punctuated by vertical uprights topped with decorative pommels. The low spacer is upholstered with a patinated leather top, framed by a fine brass gallery adorned with a Grecian motif frieze, bringing a typical neoclassical elegance and a particularly sought-after contrast of materials. The set captivates with the quality of its finishes and its Antiquity-inspired aesthetic, in the spirit of the great decorative houses such as Maison Jansen
