Description

An icon of timeless style
In the first place, it is essential to emphasize that this piece of furniture represents the very essence of period design. This splendid chest of drawers in walnut and rosewood perfectly embodies the refined taste of the 1930s. Moreover, the combination of precious woods creates a unique chromatic contrast that immediately catches the eye. Furthermore, the construction quality bears witness to a craftsmanship that is now rare to find. In addition, the geometric lines typical of the Art Deco period give the structure extraordinary dynamism. Technical details and prestigious dimensions be noted that it requires a slight conservative restoration to return to its full glory. However, this small intervention will allow the integrity of the wood to be preserved for decades to come. Consequently, the future owner will be able to enjoy a piece of furniture of great elegance and class, capable of transforming any environment into a private art gallery. Purchase security and global logistics In the same way, our priority is to ensure that the work reaches its destination without any risk. Therefore, we ship worldwide via Fed-ex, UPS, or DHL with professional packaging and insurance. Specifically, shipping throughout Europe is to be agreed upon based on logistical needs. To conclude, we offer various methods to finalize the order: payment can be made via bank transfer, Visa, or Mastercard. Despite the passing years, this chest of drawers remains a solid investment, ready to add a touch of exclusive refinement to your collection.
