Description

Large wrought-iron and brass baker's shelf, dating from the 1950s, from a bakery in Brittany (Finistère Nord). The scroll and arabesque decoration highlights refined craftsmanship, while the original patina, stamped with the passage of time, lends charm and originality to this shelf, which is as practical as it is aesthetically pleasing. Note: the shelf disassembles into two parts, making it easy to transport and install. Dimensions: 218 cm height - 190 cm width - 49 cm depth.
