Hanap Milk Jug -porcelain Of Paris - Ep. XVIIIth - Louis XVI

880 EUR

Signature : PARIS - Manufacture INDETERMINEE

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 15.3 cm

Height : 16.5 cm

Description

In the shape of an upside-down ewer-casket, resting on a pedestal, has on one side the pouring spout and on the other the handle attachment, at the top a wide flat but slightly curved wing.HARD porcelain.White background, in the center, a round medallion encircled by a gold fillet and surmounted by a garland of foliage, with landscape decoration in sepia cameo. The border features a wide band decorated with a garland of roses on a gold stippled background, surrounded by gold garlands and fillets. Gold highlights on the handle.Dimension(s) : Height. 16.5 cm - Length. 15.3 cm,Condition : INTACT,Period : XVIIIth - LOUIS XVI,Observation(s) : Minimal minor wear - RARE MODEL.This form known as "HANAP or CASQUE" was very rarely used by Parisian

Dealer

LA METAIRIE
French porcelain of 1700 / 1820
Mobile : 00 33 (0)6 68 23 93 30

Evreux 27730

manufacturers.PAYMENT and SHIPPINGPAYMENTS ACCEPTED : BANK TRANSFER / PAYPAL / CB online or CHEQUES. PACKAGES WILL BE DISPATCHED WITHIN 4 DAYS.GROUP EDITION POSSIBLE IF PURCHASING SEVERAL OBJECTS.