Description

Elegant Louis XVI style mirror frame, crafted in carved and lacquered wood, preserved in its original refined finish. The structure features a harmonious architectural line, enhanced by fluted uprights, rosette motifs, and finely carved decorative friezes along the pediment and base. The overall design stands out for its balance and restraint, characteristic of Neoclassical taste, making it a highly decorative and versatile piece suitable for both classical and contemporary interiors.

Good overall condition, with age-related wear consistent with its period, confirming its authenticity and charm.
