Description

Louis XVI period wall console - France, 18th century . stamped Jean Baptiste BOULARD BOULARD Jean-Baptiste (1725-1789) Carpenter. Paris. Mastered April 17, 1754. He was a cabinetmaker specializing in Seating , but also made a few pieces of furniture , including this Console . Elegant Louis XVI period console table in finely carved wood with an antique patina, French work from the second half of the 18th century. Half-moon shaped, it features a superb top in Breche d'Alep marble, in warm shades of ochre, brown and red, perfectly fitted to the belt. The latter is adorned with a delicate carved decoration of interlacing and rosettes, emblematic of the Louis XVI neoclassical repertoire. It rests on two console-shaped uprights with upper scrolls, linked by an elegant arched brace, centered by a large foliage motif with acanthus decoration, of very fine sculptural quality. The old stone-gray patina, with harmonious wear, highlights the relief of the decoration with refinement and gives the piece all the authenticity sought after in 18th-century furniture. It measures 96 CM in Length , 37 CM in Depth and 78 CM in Height .
