Description

Primitive BONO (Brescia, 1880 - Algeria, 1955) Fishing boats in calm weather Oil on board Signed 24 × 17 cm - With frame: 42.5 × 32.5 cm Very good condition The composition brings together several sailing boats at rest on a calm sea, their masts silhouetted against a pearly sky of pale pink and bluish-gray hues. In the foreground are canoes, one of which is maneuvered by 2 rowers. The brushstroke is vigorous and impastoed, treating the water in broad patches of dark blue enhanced by flashes of light, while the reddish-brown and ochre sails lend the whole a muted warmth, characteristic of the artist's southern palette. Born in Brescia, Lombardy, Primitif Bono exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1920 to 1929, becoming a member (silver medal in 1927). A traveler, he visited
