Description

I would have liked to be that sculptor who admired his model's perfect plasticity. C. Renato knew how to sublimate her emotions with her fingertips in the complicit clay. A silent ode to beauty, where the light, transparent tulle hugs the slightest movement the slightest movement of the gentle wind that cradled the rue d'Arsonval studio in Paris. Paris. How in love this Italian must have been Italian to create such an elegant translation of his emotions in 36 cm of bronze. Bronze with brown patina numbered 3/15 signed C. Renato for Calvinari Renato (1896-1972).
