Description

Very fine example of 1960s naive art. Still life with samovar and fruit basket, oil on canvas in very good condition by Izza Baudouin Linou. Signed lower right IZZA and lower left LINOU, countersigned on the back and dated September 1964. 50 x 61 cm (unframed) 60 x 70 cm (framed) This delicate composition features a copper samovar, an abundant bowl of fruit, a cup of tea and a few everyday objects, harmoniously arranged on a sober-toned tablecloth. The samovar, a real focal point, captures the light and dialogues with the softer hues of the fruit and textiles. The artist's sensitive rendering of materials - metal, ceramics, fabrics - and the muted light lend the whole an intimate, timeless atmosphere. In the tradition of naive art, exemplified in particular by Henri Rousseau, the
