Description

A small high sideboard with two doors featuring a musical instrument motif, topped by a sliding shelf, itself topped by two rosewood and rosewood doors. Capped with its original Brocatelle marble (a small restoration to the front right, barely visible), its sides and front are harmoniously curved. The upper doors conceal niches and small drawers, while the lower ones conceal vertical storage units. Dating from the second half of the 19th century, around 1880-1900, it is very elegant and functional.
