Description

Superb complete set of Caucasian Maffrash panels Mid-19th century. Origin Karabakh, Armenia. Two large panels: 106 x 45 cm Two small panels: 56 x 42 cm This set really stands out from the lot of Maffrash fragments one usually finds. The weaving is goldsmith's work, of extreme finesse, total precision. You instantly measure the weaver's dexterity. It's high art! At first glance, it's the choice and harmony of the natural and vegetal hues that strike you. These are dense and saturated. Deep blue like a Caucasian night, intense brick red, sandy golden yellow, green with bluish reflections... The motifs are so precise that they seem to be sculpted in the material... Perfect condition, only one of the 2 large panels has a flaw. See photo. For info, we have several dozen fragments of Caucasian and
