Description

1 Louis XVI period armchair bergère, stamped Pierre Pluvinet for one bergère and another made later in the 19th to the model. Elegant pair of carved and lacquered wood bergères, standing on fluted legs, characteristic of the neoclassical taste. Elegant pair of bergères in carved and lacquered wood. The basket-handle backrests are upholstered in a fabric with fine stripes in the softness of the lines and the generous comfort of the seat. The cuffed armrests rest on finely sculpted curved consoles finely sculpted with floral motifs and rosette dice. The straight, adorned with carved dice, and opens onto a wide, deep seat typical of shepherd's chairs, offering remarkable comfort. Stamped P. Pluvinet, master received in Paris in the 18th century, this piece
