Description

Important Louis XVI-style mirror in finely carved and gilded wood, adorned with an elegant pediment decorated with flower baskets, garlands and delicately chiseled plant motifs. The frame is richly crafted, embellished with beaded friezes and ribbon motifs, characteristic of the neoclassical taste of the late 18th century. The whole presents great finesse of execution and a beautiful harmony of proportions. By its imposing dimensions, this mirror structures the space and brings a real decorative presence. It will fit equally well into a classic or contemporary interior. Very fine quality gilding with a warm antique patina. Visible traces of time, in keeping with its age, contribute to its authenticity and charm. Dimensions: Height: 220 cm Width: 122 cm Do not hesitate to contact me for any further
