Description

Elegant pair of Louis XVI style armchairs, in carved wood, resting on tapered and fluted legs, typical of the neoclassical repertoire. The wraparound backs and seats are upholstered in caning, bringing lightness and refinement to the ensemble. The delicately sculpted armrests and ornamental details bear witness to fine craftsmanship. The harmonious lines and warm patina give these chairs a presence that is both elegant and timeless. They will easily find their place in a classic or contemporary interior. Very good overall condition, with well-preserved caning. Some slight signs of use in keeping with age. Dimensions: Height: 87 cm Width: 55 cm Depth: 54 cm Sold as a pair. Do not hesitate to contact me for any further information or additional photos.
