Description

Superb enfilade in Boule marquetry, topped with a large black marble panel that follows the general contour of the piece. Opening through three doors, the central leaf is entirely inlaid with Boule marquetry, as are the frames of the right and left doors. This cutaway enfilade features spectacular bronze falls, such as these laughing fauns on the jambs. Original locks and keys, with a few small, hard-to-detect missing parts. More photos on request.
