Description

Very pretty Cuval (open) from Gaziantep in southeastern Anatolia. True objets d'art, Cuvals are actually used for transporting and storing grain. Everyday objects, their refinement has always amazed me... Woven and embroidered wool on wool in the traditional manner. Extremely fine weave, the piece is supple and light. Vegetal hues are so fresh, they have survived a century and a half without losing their freshness and brilliance. Very beautiful harmony, Circa 1880 Perfect condition! Dim : 130 x 108 cm
