Description

Golden bronze sealing seal
Charming gilded bronze sealing seal of remarkable cast quality, depicting a rose in full bloom with its leaves and coiled stems forming the conical handle. The flower is rendered with great naturalistic care: open spiral petals, ribbed foliage, all resting on a molded base with a circular base. The cast is fine and precise, the antique gilding shows a beautiful golden patina with warm reflections, slightly worn at the reliefs, testifying to its age and use. The object is signed JANETO. Very good overall condition. Century 1900. 7.5 cm high
