

Pair Of Large Stoneware Vases With Turquoise Wheat Patina Cytère Rambervillers 20th Century

1 850 EUR

Signature : Rambervillers cytère

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sandstone

Height : 47 cm

Description

Pair of large stoneware vases Alphonse Cytère Rambervillers - Schneider A pair of large stoneware vases with a blue-green iridescent patina known as "butterfly wings", "Epis de blé" model signed Alphonse Cytère - Rambervillers and signed A.SCHNEIDER. Model featured in the 1920 catalog; the shape and curves of this vase are in the pure "nouille" style, also known as the "metro" style, a reference to Hector Guimard, represented by numerous artists of the Art Nouveau period - circa 1920 Alphonse cytère -1851-1941 - created an art studio in 1903 and perfected a new enameling technique with metallic reflections, called gré flammé. He called on many artists from the Nancy School. A workshop is still active in Rambervillers. Albert Schneider - 1877 - 1954, sculptor and ceramist

Dealer

Galerie Particulière antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0612511221

3 rue Bailleul

Fresnay-sur-Sarthe 72130

active in Rambervillers in Alphonse Cytere's workshop during the 20th century.