Description

Spectacular decorative object featuring a coiled snake, with particularly lively modeling, made of fine Akoya cultured pearls from Japan, entirely braided by hand.The sinuous body, of great refinement of execution, is made up of a dense sowing of white pearls with luminous mother-of-pearl, punctuated by darker pearl motifs naturally evoking the pattern of the reptile's skin.The visual suppleness of movement, accentuated by the coiled composition, lends the ensemble an almost animated presence.The head and tail, treated in finely chased silver, feature high-quality naturalistic work. The eyes are emphasized by delicate emerald inlays, bringing brilliance and intensity to the piece. The head and tail, treated in finely chased silver, feature high-quality naturalistic work.Resting on a
