Description

This large glazed mirror features an elegant wood and gilded stucco structure, whose rich ornamentation testifies to a strong taste for classically inspired carved decorations. The delicately openwork pediment is organized around a central medallion flanked by acanthus leaves and pearls, while a garland of flowers falls naturally on either side, emphasizing the verticality of the whole. The frame, punctuated by a finely molded frieze, is adorned with garlands of ribboned flowers and strings of pearls, softening the lines and enhancing the light. The glazing beads, framing the main glass, reinforce the effect of depth and give the room a majestic presence, ideal for magnifying a classic interior or dialoguing with contemporary decor.*****Epoque: Late 19thVery good
