Description

Lovely game table in marquetry of bouquets of flowers on all sides, in light wood fillet reserves on a rosewood background. The top and waistband are edged with brass molding. It stands on four sheathed legs, decorated with light wood fillets, bronze rings and sabots. It opens with a writing-table drawer, which lifts out to reveal card and other compartments, blond bird's-eye maple veneer and rosewood strips. Beveled mirror framed by a molding on the part that lifts out, the game table's felt carpet is in good condition (one small stain). Pretty quality furniture, in fine condition, in the Louis XVI spirit, work of the Second Empire.
